WILDLY CHEERING THOUSANDS GREET WILSON URGES CRITICS TO TEST SENTIMENT OF AMERICA

PRESIDENT DECLARES THAT EUROPE IS LOOKING TO AMERICA AS GREAT LEADER IN BRINGING ABOUT JUSTICE AND RIGHT THROUGHOUT THE WORLD AND HAS PINNED FAITH TO UNITED STATES.

THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD HAVE SET ABOUT TO CREATE A NEW WORLD NOTHING WILL STOP THEM, HE INSISTS

PRESIDENT GLAD TO BE BACK WITH FELLOW COUNTRYMEN, DECLARING HIS EVERY THOUGHT AND ACT HAS BEEN IN THE INTERESTS OF AMERICA AND AS HE THOUGHT AMERICANS WOULD HAVE HIM THINK AND ACT.

Mechanics Hall, Boston, February 24.—(Associated Press)—President Wilson, in his first speech here today, on landing from France, invited the critics of the league of nations plan to "test the sentiments of America."

President Wilson arrived at the hall at 2:30 o'clock. As his party reached the outer door a battery in the railway yards at the rear of the hall fired a presidential salute. Inside the hall the band struck up "Hail To The Chief." The preliminaries were brief. John McCormick sang "The Star Spangled Banner," after which Mayor Peters and Governor Collidge extended greetings of welcome.

As Mr. Wilson rose to speak the crowd cheered and shouted. He smiled and bowed repeatedly.

The President began by asking his audience if they could understand that he was as glad to see them as they were to see him, and went on to express his appreciation of his reception.

His reception in Europe, he said, he considered as not a tribute to himself, but a welcome to the American people. He regarded it as a welcome to "the friends of Liberty" coming across the sea to see that a new world was to be consecrated on the basis of justice and right.

The text of President Wilson's address, in part, is as follows:

"Governor Collidge, Mr. Mayor, Fellow Citizens: "I wonder if you are half as glad to see me as I am to see you. It warms my heart to see a great body of my fellow citizens again because in some respects during the recent months I have been very lonely indeed without your comradeship and counsel and I tried at every step of the work which fell to me to recall what I was sure would be your desire with regard to the great matters under consideration."

"The nations of the world have set their heads now to do a great thing and they are not going to stop short of their purpose. They do not speak of the governments, but of the peoples who will see that if their present governments do not do their will, some others will. And the secret is out and the present governments know it."

"The greatest thing I have to report to you," said he, "is that this great country of ours is trusted through the world. I have not come to report on the progress of the peace conference. That would be premature."

"The men who are in conference in Paris realize they are not masters of their people, but servants of their people, and that not a man will dare go home from that conference and report anything less than is expected."

Speaking of the slow progress of the conference the President reminded his audience of the complexity of the problems affecting nearly every country in the world.

"What we are doing," he said, "is to hear the whole case from those most interested. I have been struck by the moderation of those representing national claims."

"I have seen tears in the eyes of men there pleading for a national ambition, but they were not the tears of anguish, they were the tears of ardent hope."

"There is no nation in Europe that suspects the course of the United States. Was there ever such a wonderful thing before? I would not have you understand that the men who represent the other nations there are disinterested. Quite the contrary."

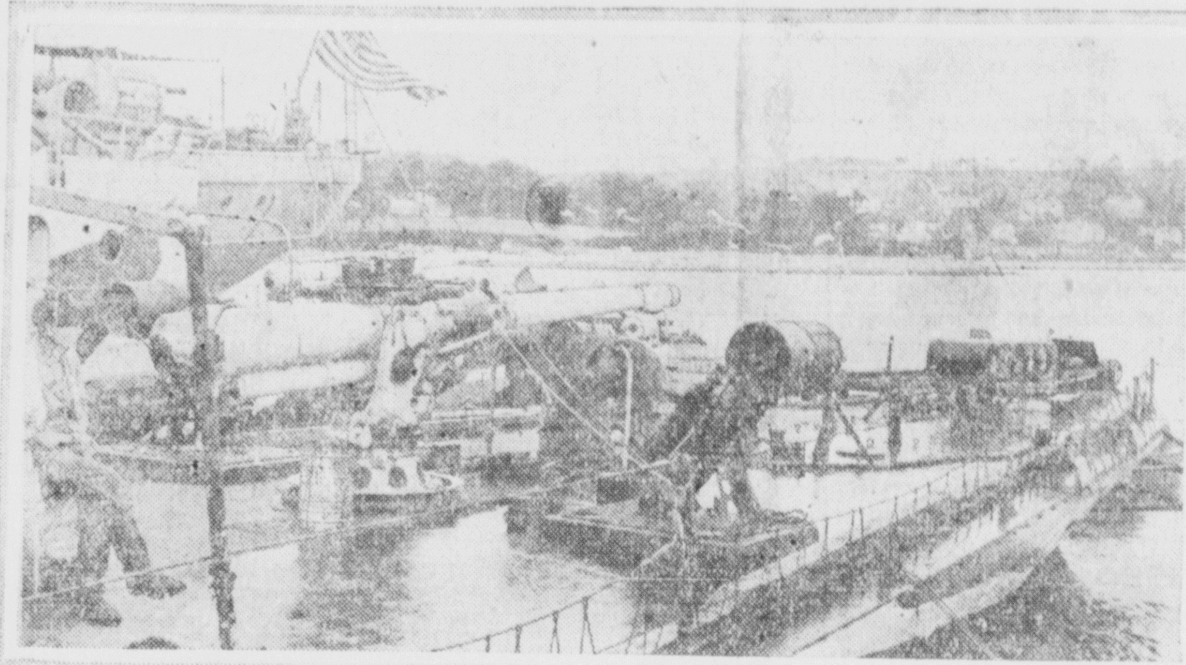

The European statesmen, he said, when unable to agree were to resort to the nation known as "the friend of mankind."

To illustrate his points the President related that American soldiers were welcomed in all the European countries.

"If I were to regard the pride I feel a personal pride, I would be the most stuck-up man in the world."

"I have come back for an attempt to transact business for a little while in America, but I say in all soberness that I have been trying to speak your thoughts. Probing deep in my heart and trying to see the things that are right rather than the things that are expedient, I am finding the heart of America. I find that in loving America I have joined the majority of my fellowmen throughout the world."

ness for a little while in America, but I say in all soberness that I have been trying to speak your thoughts. Probing deep in my heart and trying to see the things that are right rather than the things that are expedient, I am finding the heart of America. I find that in loving America I have joined the majority of my fellowmen throughout the world."

Speaking of hopes and aspirations of the people of Europe for a lasting peace, which he said, were pinned to the United States as the "friend of mankind" the President said he had no more doubt of "the verdict of America in this matter than I have doubt of the blood that is in me."

"I have been searching for the fundamental facts that have brought Europe to believe in us. We were led, for the first three years to believe, we felt we could make more by staying out than going in. Then suddenly the whole verdict was reversed. It was when they saw that America not only held ideas but acted ideas, they became the confirmed partisans of America and became converted to these ideas."

"No," said the president, "this confidence we have established calls for something. The Europe I left was full of hope. The Europe of the third year of the war was sinking to a stubborn desperation. They thought the end of the war would eventually be a resumption of the old order. They never dreamed it would be a Europe of settled peace."

"Now all the peoples of Europe are buoyed up in the hope that all the nations of the world shall unite their moral and physical forces that right shall prevail. What would happen if America should fail the world of its hope, all nations will be set up as hostile camps again and the men at the peace conference will go home with their heads upon their breasts, because they will have failed. We would leave on the peace table nothing but a modern scrap of paper."

"I do not want you to think that I have not been appreciative of the extraordinary generous reception which was given me on the other side in saying that it makes me very happy to get home again. I do not mean to say that I was not very deeply touched by the cries that came from the great crowds on the other side. But I want to say to you in all honesty that I felt them to be a greeting to you rather than to me."

"I did not feel that the greeting was personal. I had it in my heart the overwhelming pride of being your representative and of receiving the plaudits of men everywhere who felt that your hearts beat with their in the cause of liberty."

There was no mistaking the tone in the voices of those great crowds. It was not a tone of mere greeting. It was not a tone of mere generous welcome, it was the calling of comrades to comrades the cries that come from men who say: "We have waited for this come across the sea and

U. S. Had 54 Naval Bases in European Waters And 200 American Seaplanes Were Active

Demobilization of Naval Establishments Abroad Virtually Complete

(By Associated Press)

Boston, February 24.—Practically complete demobilization of all the United States Naval establishment in the European waters; sale of the great LaFayette wireless station at Bordeaux to the French government at a price of approximately $4,000,000 and many hitherto unpublished facts of American naval activities in the war were announced here today by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, who arrived with President Wilson on the George Washington.

For the last month Mr. Roosevelt has been in Europe demobilizing naval forces and settling claims.

On the trip over Mr. Roosevelt disclosed how the

EXTRA PRECAUTIONS TAKEN TO SAFEGUARD PRESIDENT BECAUSE OF PRESENT DANGERS DUE TO ANARCHISTS.

Boston, February 24.—(Associated Press)—President Wilson landed at the Commonwealth Pier at 11:42 a. m.

Returning to American soil from his history-making mission abroad the President, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, was transferred from the steamer George Washington and escorted by aircraft, submarine chasers, torpedo boat destroyers and a flotilla of committee boats, reached the landing on board the naval cutter Ossippe.

The President looked as though the journey had agreed with him. Cheers from the throng assembled greeted him as he stepped ashore. Hundreds of state and city officials, legislators, representatives of the government and a committee of women appointed to receive Mrs. Wilson greeted him there.

Less than a half hour was consumed in greeting after which the party entered autos and began a parade across the city, through streets lined with soldiers and sailors and banked with cheering thousands of civilians.

At the state house where members of the national women's party had planned a demonstration, there was hardly a suffrage banner in sight. Police had arrested 22 members of the party after they had failed to obey orders to move on.

As he passed the state house the President was greeted by 400 wounded veterans brought here for the occasion.

The President stood in his car during the entire parade acknowledging the continuous demonstration. When he reached his hotel he went directly to his room for a brief rest.

Special precautions had been taken to safeguard the progress of the chief executive through the city.

United States had spent more than $30,000,000 laying the mine barrage against submarines in the North Sea and how by the navy which the United States brought into the war the submarines were driven away from the coasts, away from the harbors and out to sea, where their deadly work would be more difficult.

"Few realize that the American navy had 54 shore bases of various kind in European waters, said Mr. Roosevelt.

"Although the majority were naval aviation bases from which more than 200 American seaplanes operated. We had more than 70,000 men at these bases and on the ships operating from them."

"Almost 50,000 officers and men have been sent home and all flying stations and bases, with few exceptions, have been evacuated."

THREE RAPS USED TO GAIN ENTRANCE TO GAMBLING DEN

The police raided what they declare was a gambling den on East Elm St. about midnight Saturday night, and obtained the names of a number of persons who will be cited to appear before Mayor Dahl and explain their presence at the place and answer to charges of "rolling the bones."

It seems that the police were tipped off that a crap game was in progress in a vacant shack on East Elm street and that it required three raps three times before admittance could be gained. In fact it seems that a disgruntled member of the group had tipped the police.

Upon reaching the house three raps were given on the door. This was repeated thrice, whereupon a voice from the inside bade them enter. At the same time there was a noise of unbaring the door. The police entered an ante room and immediately rushed in to the next room where the game is alleged to have been under way. The police succeeded in raking in 35 cents from the table but failed to get the "bones" it is understood.

The two police found nine men in the room, but in the scatterment that followed, coupled with the fact that three of the bunch made a break for liberty while on the way up town, resulted in only part of the bunch being brought in, and it was announced at the Mayor's office that affidavits were being prepared for all who were present when the minions of the law descended upon the place.

AUTOS COLLIDE ON BUSY CORNER

During Saturday two collisions occurred at Court and Main street intersection, but fortunately no one was injured in either mishap, although three automobiles were damaged somewhat.

Both accidents were due to a little carelessness, according to bystanders, as well as a little too much speed on the part of one driver in each mishap while attempting to negotiate the busy intersection.

MUCH BUILDING IS CONTEMPLATED

With the continually growing demand for suitable homes in this city to accommodate the steadily increasing population and take care of the influx of persons associated with The Sunlight Creameries, plans are being made by many persons to build additional homes beginning early in the Spring, and it is believed that local citizens alone will build a great many new homes during the present year.

With the coming months the acute shortage of homes will be more and more keenly felt, it is pointed out, unless there is something done to relieve the situation, and this "something" can only be the construction of a large number of new residences not only of the better class, but the homes renting at a nominal fee as well.

Hardly a day passes at the present time but what brings one or more applicants for homes in this city, and there is every indication that the number will increase rapidly as the weeks go by.

Personal Effects of 14 Spanish Anarchists Held in Purported Plot Are Examined

Claim Two Concerned in Plot to Kill President Wilson

(By Associated Press)
New York, February 24.—Federal Attorneys and secret service men today were examining the personal effects and papers of 14 Spaniards, members of the I. W. W., who were arrested here on suspicion that two of their number were concerned in an attempt to take the life of President Wilson on his landing at Boston.

While definite information was lacking the authorities admitted that the raids were prompted by the report that two Philadelphia Spaniards were on their way to Boston as agents in the alleged plot.

These two men were among the 14 arrested. Pending investigation the prisoners are being held on a general charge of violation of the espionage act.

DISPOSITION OF HUN SHIPS IS UNSETTLED

Supreme Council May be Called Upon to Dispose of 75 Hun Warships

Wilson and Daniels Opposed to Sinking Captured Ships, Says Washington Report

(By Associated Press)

Paris, February 24.—While the supreme war council has not discussed the disposition of surrendered German warships, the naval experts of the council have studied the subject. British and American officers agreeing that the proper solution will be to sink them in deep water.

French and Italian officers do not take this view and if the experts do not soon reach an agreement the matter may be taken up directly by the Supreme War Council.

The British navy has captured the greater number of German vessels and the British delegates feel they have a greater interest in the determination of the question, and they have the weight of the opinion of American experts with them. There are 74 German warships aggregating half a million tons. These vessels cannot be used profitably in commerce are too heavily engined and have no cargo space. It has also been demonstrated that naval vessels cannot be broken up at a profit.

President Wilson's attitude was declared in Washington to be against the sinking of the German ships and Secretary Daniels expressed himself as being opposed to such a course.

Safeguarding Health

Even at the frightful cost of the war now ended people fully realize that from its lessons humanity will reap many benefits and one of them already apparent is the added care and thought given to the safe-guarding of health.

So vitally important to the welfare of the nation and to its morality is good health, that, at the request of the United States Public Health Service, the subject of health in its relation to morals was presented in the church pulpits all over the country yesterday, and ministers gladly turned from customary channels to impress the importance of enforcing proper health laws as the duty of church, state and nation at this time when our boys are being brought back from overseas and camps to their communities.

The world of medicine and of surgery rose to the demands of the past two years amazingly and through thousands of new channels moved the spirit of healing, but this reconstruction period demands more than restoring the body to health—it demands improved conditions and education and the establishing of health laws which will prevent need of healing and keep the physical man fit for service and a dependable factor in life's relations.

It's a big problem—this question of health and morality—and it makes a strong claim upon public interest and effort, awakening to the need of right health laws.

There is now, in our own state, before the General Assembly a public health bill—its aim to provide Ohio with an efficient system of local health administration.

Such a bill is well worth the consideration of the public and the investigation of its requirements and merits. Two of its provisions—for a full time health officer, and a public health nurse in every county—offer specially strong inducement to public favor.

"The Woman's Committee Council of National Defense," a government organization which proved itself a power in various branches of war work and associate welfare work, puts itself on record that this bill is of great importance and strongly advocates its passage, expressing the conviction that the bill will mark a distinct advance in public health administration.

The plan of the bill has been formulated in accordance with the suggestions of the Health and Old Age Insurance Commission with the advice and co-operation of the State Department of Health and of various municipal and local health officers, with the recommendations of the Governor and with resolutions of commercial, agricultural, labor and social interests of the state, so that its claims to merit would seem to be well substantiated by the character of its supporters.

A Builder of a Dominion

The past nine years have somewhat obscured the part that the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier played in Canadian politics and in the development of the British Empire. His emergence from the ranks of his party into its leadership in 1887 and his accession to the premiership of Canada in 1896 were deeply significant events. They showed an adaptability in the administration of the empire's affairs that was later to mold it into a great compact imperial force which should resist German world domination.

Laurier was a French-Canadian and a Catholic, belonging to two elements that had supplied more than one insurrection in Canada's earlier history. Indeed, at the time Laurier, himself, doubted the wisdom of his elevation to the leadership of the Liberal party in Canada. But his statesmanship proved equal to the test, and Canada achieved a solidarity and prosperity during his long administration, from 1896 to 1910, that exceeded the dreams of the most sanguine. And, in fact, because of Laurier's antecedents rather than despite them, loyalty among Canadians to the mother country increased. Many of the seeds of Canada's response to Britannia's call in the Great War were sown during the fourteen years that Laurier guided the Dominion's politics.

Before Laurier a colony was to most Britons a thing remote and detached. He was the first colonial prime minister to enter the councils of the British Empire, the innovation taking place at the time of the Queen's Jubilee. He set the precedent for the later entrance of Botha and Hughes and Borden into the imperial deliberations.

The people of the United States ever will hold Laurier in grateful memory. It was his ardent advocacy of a greater rapprochement between Canada and the United States that caused the downfall of his government in 1910. He favored the reciprocity treaty proposed by the Taft administration, a proposal unfortunately defeated because of the prejudice inspired by annexation utterances of Champ Clark and other politicians on this side of the border.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

POEM FOR TODAY

A MOCKING BIRD IN WINTER
 I passed him on a stubble in a corn-field yesterday.
 A mocking bird that whispered of a vanished dream of May.
 He fluttered for a moment, then looked round with curious eye
 At the trees without their foliage and the shadows on the sky—
 A little patch of summer in this barren field of life
 To help us dream the roses back to all this rugged strife.

His golden song was silent—but I seemed to hear him sing
 As a phantom of old music in a vanished glade of spring;
 And around me all the willows put their catkins on again.
 And the maples and the redbuds dashed in color through the glen.
 And the apple bloom was snowing in quaint orchards far away
 On the warm south side of summer in a dream of yesterday.

Oh, thank you, Mister Chorister, for coming back to me
 To kiss the winter landscape with these fancies of old glee;
 May God that tempers winter to the shorn and trembling lamb
 Make yours a holy season of unruffled peace and calm.
 For you have lit the springtime and the summer's sweet of dream
 In our trusting hearts forever with your music of the gleam.
 —Baltimore Sun.

THOSE WERE THE HAPPY DAYS

MOVING TIME AT HAND ONCE MORE

Moving time is at hand once more and for the next three weeks it will be a common thing to see wagon loads of household effects on the road.

The moving time chiefly affects the rural communities, but at the same time brings about many changes in the city as some move into town and others move out.

There will be a great deal of changing about this year, probably more than usual, and the migration is already under way.

HORSE FRIGHTENS DRIVER IS INJURED

Saturday afternoon while Minor Mullenour and Miss Belle Lloyd, of Marion township, were driving on the Circleville pike at Johnson's Crossing their horse took fright at a fast driven automobile which was plunging recklessly down the road, and giving a series of lunges, broke loose from the buggy dragging Mullenour out over the dashboard and painfully injuring him about one shoulder and side.

The buggy was not badly damaged and the horse was captured before it had a chance to run far.

AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN CUTTING SHOE EXPENSE

"Many months of comfort at little expense" is the way Charles A. Pearson of San Diego, California, sums up his experience with Neolin Soles. Mr. Pearson had two pairs of shoes resoled with Neolin Soles, and after wearing them for twenty months writes "I will have to get new shoes sometime, but so far as the soles are concerned, that time seems as far distant as when they were new."

This is typical of the experience millions are having with Neolin Soles. Created by Science to be durable, flexible and waterproof, these soles are an important factor in cutting shoe expense. You can get them on new shoes for the whole family, and for re-soles. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

News of Interest to Women

A very pleasurable birthday dinner was given at the home of Mr. J. L. Mark on the Snowhill pike, Sunday, in honor of the joint birthdays of Mrs. Mark and her little two-year-old grand-daughter, Sarah Elizabeth Freshour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Freshour.

At the children's table a birthday cake with two tiny pink tapers delighted the young guests. Washington's Birthday suggestions and a large cake with rose candles formed attractive decorations on the table of the older people.

An elaborate menu was served by the four daughters, Mesdames Gilbert Freshour, Carl Mickel, Charles Hard, and Elmer Vince, who had carefully planned the surprise.

The additional guests with the family were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver, Mr. C. O. Deer, son Heber, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sollars and two children.

The Daughters of the American Revolution celebrated George Washington's birthday Saturday afternoon at the Federated Club Rooms in a very simple way as the Chapter is continuing the conservation of their funds, carefully practiced for several years, for war relief work. But with the simplicity Washington's memory was kept green in a very charming "Geo. Washington" tea, its details attractively carried out in connection with patriotic features. There was a large attendance of Daughters who were given cordial greeting by Mrs. Harriet Woodward, Regent, and Mrs. Ada Jones, Vice Regent. The Chapter officers, followed the established custom of being hostesses for the anniversary affair.

A profusion of cut flowers and potted plants made the large club room doubly inviting and flags added their note of patriotism to the decorations.

A preliminary business session was opened by the singing of a national song and the reading of Geo. Washington's prayer by the Chaplain, Mrs. Belle L. Ustick.

Delegates elected to the 28th Continental Congress convening in Washington, D. C., April the 14th to the 19th, were the Regent, by right of office, Mrs. J. Star Smith; the alternates Mrs. R. M. Hughey and Miss Dorothy Smith.

Delegates and alternates to the State Convention to be held in Cleveland March 11th to 14th were the Regent, Mrs. Joseph Hidy, Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton and Mrs. Ray Maynard. This state conference will have its headquarters at the Statler Hotel and will be entertained by the Western Reserve Chapter of Cleveland, of which the State Regent, Mrs. Edward L. Harris is a member.

The Cleveland Chapter purposes to spare no effort in entertainment.

Mrs. Woodward, whose Regency has been marked by the patriotic work of the Daughters and the inspiration of her indefatigable personal efforts, made an impressive short address, in which she spoke of the past year's splendid record in war work made by the Daughters, and their patriotic response to many calls and their readiness to assist in many things yet to do.

An interesting feature was the giving of items connected with the private life and military career of Geo. Washington and his taking the office of the United States First President. Mrs. R. M. Hughey added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon in two vocal solos "Dear Old Pal of Mine" and "The Long, Long Trail." Both selections lent themselves admirably to her rarely beautiful high and full soprano, and were charmingly sung. Mrs. W. D. Craig accompanied. Mrs. Ray Maynard gave an interesting reading "Women in War"—a review of women's activities in our different wars.

The Daughters fully appreciated the generous response made by Miss Irene Tobin to the program in two original poems (a) "Why We Answered" (b) "Authority on History." The first was historical, the second a humorous dialect sketch and in these, as well as an encore "Brevity," Miss Tobin richly entertained her audience and convinced them anew of the unusual talent with which she is endowed.

Miss Ruth Tanquary, an eligible young daughter, played beautifully.

"Moment Musicale" — Schurwenka— and responded to an enthusiastic encore with a Hungarian Rhapsody—Karl Koelling. The Daughters are glad to know that they have a claim on this young musician.

After the singing of America followed a social hour of much charm over the tea table, and in the enjoyment of a delicious luncheon. The table presented a fascinating reproduction from Colonial Days, with real old Colonial silver and antique cloth, heirlooms in the Hegler family, exquisite center basket of Spring flowers and crimson candles shedding illumination.

Mrs. Jennie Bailey, a Chapter member now residing in Detroit, was a most welcome guest.

The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, March the third. A large attendance is urged as business of importance is to be discussed.

In compliment to Mrs. Walter Larrimer, a bride of a few months, brought by Lt. Larrimer from Ft. Sill, Okla., for the first visit at his home in Bloomingburg, Mrs. Maude Howland gave a charming luncheon Friday.

Mrs. Larrimer is both pretty and attractive and the favored guests greatly enjoyed the opportunity of meeting her together with the cordial hospitality of the hostess.

The table was effectively decorated with flags, hatchet, cherries and the tempting viands of the luncheon also carried out the George Washington birthday suggestions.

Seated with the hostess and honor guest were Mesdames W. W. Haines, Mrs. Henry Larrimer, Howard Jefferson, Raymond Scott, Miss Bertha Larrimer, of Bloomingburg and Mrs. Mart G. Morris, of this city.

Forty-two Eastern Star Chapter members gathered at the Masonic hall for the first quilt making for Devastated France. A number of comforts were started and a most generous supply of materials brought in. The quilting will be resumed next Friday afternoon.

To celebrate the winning of the South Central Ohio High School Tournament by the Washington High School Basketball team, the Chi Delta Chi Club of girls will give a "Tournament Dance" Tonight at the G. A. R. Hall.

Members of the team will be honor guests.

SIMPLE SERVICES FOR YOUNG GIRL

Rev. J. F. Henkle conducted simple and impressive services over all that was mortal of Miss Addie Engle at the Mount Olive church Sunday afternoon in the presence of sorrowing friends and relatives who gathered with the family to pay a farewell tribute.

The minister spoke touchingly of the faith of this young girl, who had been interested in the church since early girlhood, and was also an earnest worker in the Sunday School.

At the time of her death she was Secretary of this organization. Her untimely death is particularly sad.

She was a member of the present Senior Class of the Washington High School until a year ago, when ill health necessitated her withdrawal, but she bore the disappointment with a patient submissiveness which won for her added affection.

The choir sang effectively the hymns "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Does Jesus Care."

There were a number of beautiful flowers, including designs from the church and Sunday school.

Messrs. Williams, Howard, Jess and Frank Engle, J. D. Holland and William Henkle acted as pallbearers and bore the casket to its final resting place in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

Relatives who came for the services were Mr. Frank Engle of Cedarville; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Howland of Greenfield, and Mr. W. A. Howland, Bloomingburg.

PURSE OF $800 IS SUBSCRIBED FOR DR. MAHOOD

Four Weeks' Evangelistic Service At Grace M. E. Church Come to Close Sunday Night and Dr. Mahood and Daughter Take Departure.

A purse of $800 was raised for Dr. Mahood and daughter as an appreciation of their able services in conducting the series of evangelistic services and health culture work at Grace M. E. Church, and this amount was tendered Dr. Mahood at the close of his work in this city Sunday night. Dr. Mahood and daughter took their departure Monday morning.

Three services of great interest featured Sunday at Grace Church, the regular services Sunday morning the special service for men in the auditorium and for the women in the Epworth League room during the afternoon, and the final meeting Sunday night, all of which were largely attended and in which the large audiences took great interest.

The series of meetings conducted by Dr. Mahood resulted in great good to the church generally, and the acquisition of several new members. Dr. Mahood proved an evangelist of exceptional ability, and his sermons attracted widespread attention, proving his reputation of being among the country's leading evangelists and best thinkers.

The work of Miss Mahood in physical culture lectures and exercises not only proved popular among the women of the church, but also was of inestimable value to the large number who attended her lectures and took part in the exercises.

Sunday afternoon's sermon delivered to the men, was one of the most forceful presented by Dr. Mahood, and in part he said:

"From an outward view point a nation may seem to be successful while at the vitals of national life may be gnawing some deadly parasite of vice that is gradually but surely undermining the whole national character and preparing the way for final ruin. Unless this nation shall put away from her the deadly sin of anarchy, sabbath desecration, licentiousness and gambling then in the word of God and in history her ruin is foretold.

And as it is with nations so with men. From outward viewpoint a man may seem successful, but some deadly sin may be undermining character and preparing the way for final ruin.

"Some men so to the flesh and reap a harvest of loss of health, and a ruined mind. There are two things that are largely responsible for the prevalence of immorality among young men today. The neglect of parents and the modern dance. There are to unalterable laws that ought to startle every young man who lives an immoral life. First: the sins of the fathers are visited upon the children; Second, a man cannot go back and live his life over again and undo what he has done. We are making the character now with which we shall have to live through eternity. We cannot restore innocence, but through the sacrifice and death of Christ we can restore purity of life."

Regular meeting of Temple Lodge No. 227 I. O. O. F. Tuesday evening at 7:00 p. m. Work in the third degree. Visiting brothers welcome.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—a torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Farmers Please Note 5% Early-Delivery Discount On Mogul and Titan Tractors

NEARLY five thousand of our boys in khaki and blue are coming back to work. We shall, of course, make a place in our organization for every one of them, but we wish to do it without throwing out of employment the men who took their places and have worked faithfully for us ever since. This is not going to be so easy for us as for some others, because the Government designated ours as an essential industry during the war, and we actually increased the efficiency of our organization after our boys left to join the ranks.

We can, however, give steady work both to our present help and to the returning soldiers and sailors, if we can bring about an immediate increase in tractor production. In order to do this we must move forward to the farm some thousands of tractors that are ordered for delivery at various dates up to May 1st, and we shall also have to ship a large number of tractors that farmers intended to order later this season, but could just as well take now. To those farmers who are so situated as to be able to take advantage of it we make the following proposition:

Our Early-Delivery Discount Plan

If you will take delivery of a Mogul or Titan tractor now we will reward your co-operation as follows: To those who will accept delivery of a Mogul or Titan 10-20 on or before March 8th we will give an Early Delivery Discount of 5 percent from the price of the tractor. (This amounts to $61.25 in the case of the Titan 10-20 and $56.25 on the Mogul 10-20.)

After March 8th the following discounts will be given:

For delivery during week of March 10 to March 15 incl. 4 percent
For delivery during week of March 17 to March 22 incl. 3 percent
For delivery during week of March 24 to March 29 incl. 2 percent
For delivery during week of March 31 to April 5 incl. 1 percent

This discount will go a long way toward paying the fuel bills of your tractor during this season.

By taking advantage of this Early-Delivery Discount, you will not only be helping yourself, but will enable us more easily to put back to work our army of returning boys without breaking up our present organization.

You will find that you need a few weeks to get acquainted with your new tractor. The man who has his tractor early can become familiar with it, so that when the first day of good plowing weather dawns, he will be able to get in the field without a moment's lost time. That in itself is a very good reason for taking early delivery.

Go to your dealer and tell him that you will accept immediate delivery of your Mogul or Titan 10-20 horsepower tractor, so he can make up his carload shipments without delay.

WASHINGTON HIGH BEATS BUCKSKIN AND WINS SERIES

Championship of South Central Ohio Again Comes to Washington High As Result of Spectacular Work Of Strong Team.

Big Tournament Featured By Clean, Hard Playing As Teams Clash For The Handsome Trophy Cup.

By defeating the strong Buckskin team in the final game at Greenfield Saturday night, Washington High School basketball team won the championship in the South Central Ohio High School Basketball Tournament and in triumph carried off the second time in three years, the beautiful loving cup offered to the winning team.

Saturday afternoon Washington played Waverly in the semi-finals and administered the worst defeat of the tournament to this supposedly strong team. The feature of the game was the fact that Waverly did not score a single basket and scored their five points on fouls while Washington ran up a total of forty markers. This victory put Washington Hi in the finals.

Buckskin and Greenfield next took the floor and played one of the hardest fought games of the entire tournament. The two teams were very evenly matched, but the steady and persistent playing of the Buckskin boys told in the end and Greenfield was eliminated from the race by six points the final score being 32 to 26. This game decided Washington and Buckskin as the teams to fight for the cup in the final show in the evening.

How Washington Won the Cup
 The Washington boys made a flying start and ran up eleven points to Buckskin's half dozen in the first quarter of play. In the second quarter Washington doubled the eleven points while Buckskin was able to add only five more points to their side of the score board.

Buckskin came back strong in the second half and soon tied the score, 23 to 23. The Washington boys came forward with another knockout punch and by the fastest playing ever seen on the floor during the tournament were able to draw steadily away from their opponents. The final whistle found the score 46 to 29 and the Washington lads were winners of the tournament and the trophy cup.

The exceptional playing of Ed De-

Wes, Eddie scored 21 points for Washington with 13 baskets and five free throws.
 Captain "Pete" Willis at center inspired his men with his remarkable guardwork, and also threw in six baskets, which was most brilliant work for a center.
 "Red" Dorn, Washington's star Freshman, played a model defense game and garnered three ringers during his spare moments.
 Washington's four guards, Laughlin, Reif, Rogers and Cockerill played a large part in the victory by their steady defense. Laughlin and Reif were assigned the job of holding down Wilson, Buckskin's fast forward. Tommy Rogers played his usual good game and then went to forward when Dorn was injured. Cockerill replaced Rogers at guard. The score shows how well the guards did their work.
 Credit must be given to Buckskin for their clean playing and the fact that they played hard to the last whistle.

Washington's victory in the tournament is more appreciated when it is known that the team was without a regular coach. Captain Willis, assisted by DeWes, has had charge of the team this season and simply outgeneraled the best coaches of south central Ohio.

There was an immense crowd of Washington rooters on hand to help cheer the boys on to victory, and enthusiasm ran at a high pitch.

The tournament was featured by clean playing and fair refereeing, being by far the best tournament of the series held at Greenfield.

Says "Vinol Cures Chronic Coughs"

New York City, 121 Nicholas Avenue.—"I teach piano and singing and when suffering from chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, I use Vinol as I find it cures when other remedies fail."—Henry Albers.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such conditions, is because it is a constitutional remedy containing beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, strengthens and revitalizes the entire system and assists nature to expel the disease.

HIGHWAYS IN BAD CONDITION

The highways of the county, or a large percentage of them at least, are in very bad condition as the result of the continued thawing and downpour of rain, coupled with no attempt at regulation of traffic.

For several days the roads have been becoming worse and worse until some of them reached a condition that many persons would not venture upon them with automobiles, fearing that they would be unable to reach their destination.

Heavy hauling over the roads, as well as incessant use by heavy, and sometimes rapidly driven automobiles have cut them almost through in many places, and had the rain continued a few days longer, some points in leading highways would have been almost impassable.

Peas are not unlike any other crop, but you know that if you wish to produce a good crop of peas, corn, oats, etc., you cannot expect to harvest a good crop unless the crop is planted in good ground, and the soil is adapted to the crop. Peas being a leguminous plant add to the soil. It takes good ground well drained. It is the duty of our Field Inspector to go into the matter fully and assist you, for that reason we do not want you to grow peas on land not adapted to them, for it would not only be unprofitable to you, but also a loss to us. That is why we exercise the greatest care and want your judgment and experience also in the growing of our crops. Please bear in mind in quoting these averages on peas, these growers produced a second crop on the same land, such as sweet corn and field corn. To insure a healthy stand of alfalfa or clover is by the growing of peas.

Our Inspector, Mr. Harry Hyer, is now in the field contracting pea acreage for this season and will call upon you. However, any information desired, in case he should fail to reach you, you can call by phone at the Factory, or our branch office, located with the Edgar Snyder Insurance Company.
